Sharing etiquette

Here are some dos and don'ts to help ensure you have a fun, safe journey with your sharer.

Do always meet up with the person you have been paired with prior to sharing together. This meeting should happen in a public place and please make sure you tell someone you trust where and when you are meeting.

Do ask to see photo ID such as driving licence and easitCARD prior to sharing.

Do ask the driver for proof of vehicle insurance

Do ask the driver for the Vehicle Registration Number, Vehicle Make and then check the details on <https://www.vehicleenquiry.service.gov.uk/> if the journey is happening by car.

Do discuss what you will be paying (if traveling as a passenger) or charging (if driving) prior to making the journey.

Do share details of your sharer with friends and family before you start sharing.

Do meet your potential car-share partner in a public place, close to public transport connections if possible so that alternative transport options are available should the journey share fall through. We advise members not to meet at a home address initially for security reasons

Do confirm with your sharer that the journey is still going ahead 24 hours before you're due to meet.

Do be very clear about where you are meeting. The commute to work can be quite stressful. Let's try to minimise that stress.

Do review your sharer once you've completed your journey, but avoid getting personal. Think about how you would feel if you were reading that review about you.

Don't share personal details with anyone and certainly don't share your home address until you have met with your potential sharer.

Don't share if you don't feel comfortable. You do not have to share if you don't want to.

Don't make a profit if you are driving other people.

The Public Passenger Vehicle Act (1981 Section 1(4)) outlines the rules that govern car-sharing. Passenger contributions should be arranged before travel and should not exceed the running costs (including wear and depreciation) of the vehicle for the trip. easitSHARE calculates a suggested price per passenger for your journey based on the length of your trip and using HM Revenue and Customs Approved Mileage Payment Allowance.

Don't be late it adds unnecessary stress on your sharer. If you are going to be late ensure you let your sharer know ASAP.

Don't just not turn up. If you're unable to make it, ensure that you notify your sharer in good time.
